Editor's Notes
Andy McNab

While I've enjoyed my time as editor of your magazine, it's time to step aside in search of other avenues where I can best serve our community for the time I have left as a TPUOA board member.

It is with a goodly amount of glee to see a revitalized Happenings magazine and I'm pretty dang prideful that I was able to use my experience to assist in the effort, although the real work was accomplished by our correspondents who submitted the stories and photographs. Happenings is, and always will be, under the ownership of the homeowners and residents of Tri Palm Estates.

Our magazine will now be in the capable hands of TPUOA staffer Erika Van Gaalen, who will be the recipient of your emails, and board member Maureen Steinwall who serves as communications chair.

The first thing we can all do to help is to direct your monthly musings to happenings@tpuoa.com. Erika has already reached out to a number of you and I'm sure that will continue.

Reminds me of a story. Of course. Some of my pimple years were spent working at a pizza parlor taking orders and spinning pies. One old duffer would order a pepperoni pizza, extra pepperoni of course, and I could count on him to complain that his meal was too greasy. Every week, same tale.

Tired of what I presumed as nonsense, I figured I'd fix him by adding a handful of anchovies under the cheese, served him his order and set back to watch him finish his meal. All of it. Walking up to me he pointed his cane at my noggin, saying "you man ya finally got it right."

Not sure what the lesson here is, but maybe like the pizza, I'm a bit salty but here to serve.

On the cover: One of Second Season Golf Club's most anticipated tournaments for the season is the annual Ryder Cup where players from Canada and the USA spar for bragging rights and an embroidered jacket. This latest victory is the third in a row for the Canadians.

How Your TPUOA Committees Work for You

Fred Knutzen
TPUOA President

Last month, I shared that we would begin explaining how our committees operate. Tri Palm Home Owners Association (TPUOA) has six committees that help keep our community running smoothly and looking its best. Each committee is led by two board members and supported by volunteers who give their time to keep TPUOA strong.

Our Six Committees include CC&R Covenants, Conditions & Restrictions: ensures homes follow the Property Owners Handbook (POH) to maintain community standards. Senior Housing: ensures TPUOA meets all 55+ requirements and that residents meet age requirements. Architectural: reviews home and yard improvement requests to ensure they meet POH guidelines and county codes. RR&F Rules, Regulations & Facilities: brings together the Board and TPUOA clubs to discuss rules and facility needs. Legal: handles issues that may require advice or action from outside legal counsel.

Communications: shares important updates through email blasts and the Happenings magazine.

Three committees (CC&R, Senior Housing, and Architectural) now follow consistent, formal processes when something isn't in compliance. When a violation is observed or reported, photos and a written report are prepared. A notice is sent to the homeowner, who has two weeks to correct the issue. If nothing changes, a Hearing Notice is issued. If there is still no response, a fine is issued. Continued non-response results in additional fines, and eventually, the case will be sent to legal counsel. Most of our 1,629 homeowners take pride in their homes and follow the property owners' handbook, which presents our CC&R and rules. However, about 50-60 residents repeatedly ignore the rules, requiring ongoing enforcement.

During the recent election, the Board asked homeowners to consider a CC&R amendment that would allow TPUOA to charge violators for cleanup or legal costs. If the amendment passes, repeat violators and noncompliant residents will pay for their own cleanup and legal fees. If it does not pass, the Board may have to issue a community-wide assessment, meaning all homeowners would share the cost created by a small group of repeat offenders. This is not fair to the majority who follow the rules and take pride in our community.

Be Part of the Solution, Volunteer! Whether you're a snowbird or a full-time resident, volunteers are always welcome. Your involvement helps keep Tri Palm Estates a beautiful, well-run community we can all be proud of.

Come join us every Sunday at 11:00 a.m. at the Tri Palm Estates Clubhouse, where our church family gathers and invites You to Worship with Us.

March brings us St. Patrick's Day, a time when we often see the shamrock, a symbol said to represent the Holy Trinity: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. In a similar spirit, our church is blessed with three meaningful ways we serve and uplift our congregation: Inspiring worship music provided by Dorothy and Wendel Morden; An encouraging message from our pastor, George Smith; Fellowship with coffee and treats, graciously prepared by Ron and Shirley Mamath.

Rental Property Reminder for Our 55+ Community

Submitted by
Kim Ward, Vice President

As a designated 55-and-older community, our HOA must follow specific guidelines to maintain compliance with senior-housing regulations. We appreciate everyone's cooperation in helping preserve the quiet, age-qualified environment our residents value.

Rental duration requirements within the community, homes may not be rented for fewer than 30 days. Short-term stays including weekend, weekly, or vacation-style rentals are not permitted. Properties may be rented seasonally or full-time, if all occupants meet the age qualifications.

Before renters can take occupancy, homeowners must submit the following to the HOA office: A completed Age Verification Form for each occupant, a photocopy of a government-issued ID confirming age eligibility, and a copy of the lease or rental agreement listing all occupants and signed by the property owner.

These documents ensure that all rentals comply with state and federal senior-housing rules and help maintain the integrity and character of our 55+ community.

Thank you for supporting a well-managed and peaceful neighborhood. If you have questions about rental procedures, please contact the HOA office.

The now annual horse race attracted more spectators than the twelve 2-player teams, and there were many triumphs to cheer for and a few more misaimed swings. Winning the January 24 event was the team of Mike West and Jim Lebourdais, and second place to Bryce Johnston and Dennis Hopkins, while third went to Don Redding and Bob Myers. The Horserace was organized by Brad Chudiak and was open to all Tri Palm players.

TPUOA News: Membership Participation and February Board Decisions

Maureen Steinwall,
TPUOA Board

We are pleased to share that 6-percent of the community has already submitted their $184 annual dues on time. We remain optimistic that the remaining 32-percent will respond to the second mailing, sent by post or email, so we can achieve full participation.

At the February 11 meeting, the TPUOA Board approved a revised fines policy and schedule. The 2025 income statement, along with a comparison to the approved budget, is also approved. These documents will be posted on the website and available in the office for anyone who would like to review them.

Fun and raffles at General Meeting

Maureen Steinwall,
TPUOA Board

The board was delighted to host a truly wonderful General Meeting on Saturday, February 14. It was a great opportunity to come together, share updates, and celebrate the spirit that makes our community so special.

As a way of expressing our heartfelt appreciation to all who participate, volunteer, and help keep our community thriving, we held a raffle to say thank you for your ongoing involvement and support. Your engagement is what strengthens our neighborhood and makes gatherings like this meaningful.

Congratulations to our two raffle winners, Fred Dearden and Terry Anderson, who each received a $20 gift certificate to the Tri Palm Restaurant, compliments of TPE. Their names were drawn, but the gratitude extends to every member who shows up, contributes, and helps build the sense of connection we value so much.

We're excited to share that we'll continue this tradition moving forward. A raffle will be held at every general meeting as our ongoing way of saying thank you for your participation and support.

We hope you will join us March 11, and be part of the fun, the connection, and the chance to win a little something extra. Your involvement truly strengthens our community.

New neighbor? Palm Creek Ranch

TPOOA Board has learned we may be getting a new neighbor we thought our residents would like to learn more about the project. Palm Creek Ranch (PCR) is a fully approved master planned community with 371 single-family home lots in Thousand Palms. The site is located south of Vista Del Sol, east of Ramon Road, and west of El Centro Way. The main entrances will be Vista Del Sol and Desert Moon Drive. planned community with 371 single-family home lots in Thousand Palms. The site is located south of Vista Del Sol, east of Ramon Road, and west of El Centro Way. The main entrances will be Vista Del Sol and Desert Moon Drive.

The entire property covers 110 acres and includes three areas planned for single-family homes and one area planned for multifamily housing, which the current owner will keep. Accessory Dwelling Units (ADU) will also be built, doubling the number of houses available on the land. The community was designed for budget-minded buyers, allowing builders to offer homes at prices most people can afford, especially with FHA-friendly financing.

Status with Riverside County Planning: The Tentative Tract Map has been approved. The Grading Plan is still under review. The Development Agreement and related ordinance are also under review. The project will next go to the Director's

Hearing, then the Planning Commission, and finally the Board of Supervisors for approval of the Development Agreement and Ordinance. The property is designated for low-density residential use.

Ladies, did you go to the Women's Club February luncheon and Fashion Show? There were over 110 ladies who hopefully found fabulous fashions from LA Fashions that they loved and fantastic jewelry by Sandi. Did you like the earlier opening so that you had more time to shop? Please let us know. A thank you goes to all the models who wore items that they had previously purchased.

A big thank you goes out to all of you ladies who bought tickets at the "Books for Kids" raffle table during all our prior luncheons. With that money and a donation from the Tri Palms Men's Golf Club we were able to hand out close to 600 books to the kids at the Della S. Lindley School. Thanks also to Denise and Mike Morrissey, Corinne and Barry Smith, Sharon and John Cuddihy, and Pam Horton who prepared and distributed the books.

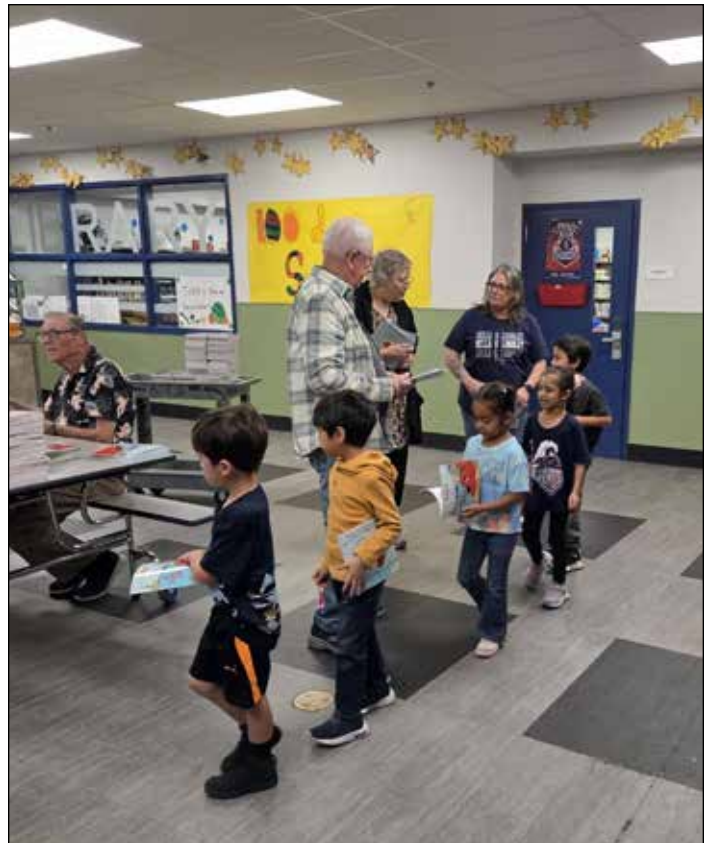

A flashback to Entertainment Night with The Dreamboats, where music filled the air. Did your feet hurt from all the dancing? So many people took the opportunity to dance and have fun. What memories were brought back with Jailhouse Rock, Hit the Road Jack and many others.

This month the Women's Club Talent Show is on March 19. Have you sent in your entry to Sandy yet? Now don't be shy, whether you are a singer, a dancer, a synchronized swimmer, a duo, in a group, or are a single, get your entry to Sandy, sandytung06@outlook.com. The talent show will be lots of fun and a time to see all the talent we have at Tri Palm.

Make reservations early for the March luncheon by Monday, March 16 at 10:00 a.m. Our method for RSVP's may be changing. You will be notified if it does change. Until then please use one of these choices: Reply to the email invitation, or email sandytung06@outlook.com.

If you find that you cannot come, please cancel your reservation so that someone else can attend. The doors open at 11:00 and lunch is served at 12:00. The cost is still $18.00 for members and $20.00 for non-members.

All ladies are welcome at our luncheons on the third Thursday of every month.

Better yet, why not join us and participate in all of the fun. Dues are still $15.00 per year April through March. As a note, all memberships expire in March so you will need to renew yours for the 2026 to 2027 season.

Shufflers find success at tournaments

Although February is the shortest month of the year, it is one of the busiest months in the shuffleboard calendar.

In preparation for the district doubles tournament, we held a doubles tournament within the club. Terry and Marilyn Boyd won this event. They then went on to win third in the consolation round of the district tournament.

Several of our players will go to Hemet to participate in the CSA Hall of Fame Singles Tournament, a national event. The district 5 Tournament of Champions, the last tournament of the season, will be taking place at Desert Crest ark. It is an invitational tourney and many of our players have been invited and look forward to the challenge.

Locally the courts have been busy. Some days those who arrive late are out of luck because all the courts are full. In March we will be having a Canada vs USA event which hosts great competition and fun costumes. We will also have our golf and porch party, and a final wind-up dinner and silent auction with our AGM.

There is still time to come out and try a game. Join us on Monday, Tuesday, and Friday mornings at 8:45 and Saturdays at 12:45. There are always people available to help you learn. Come and join us for all the fun times!

Tri Palm Golf Flood Update: A Fresh Start for Our Courses

Bill Klemke
for Western Golf

On Saturday, November 15, Tri Palm experienced major flooding. We had just finished overseeding the Millennium Course, which had been open for a few days. The Century Course was being prepared for overseeding, but no seed had been applied yet. Because the flooding was severe—and remembering how long recovery took after the August 2023 flood—we hired a contractor to speed up cleanup. They estimated they could reopen the entire property in under a month for $200,000.

In 2023, we handled most of the cleanup ourselves, which kept both courses closed until Valentine's Day 2024 and still cost more than $250,000 in equipment rentals plus outside help. This time, Sunrise Construction brought a large crew and heavy equipment. Sixteen of the eighteen holes reopened within two weeks, and the remaining two opened two weeks later.

With Sunrise handling the major cleanup, our staff was able to focus on prepping and overseeding the Century Course on schedule. Sunrise finished their final work on hole 12 the week before Christmas. With more rain expected, we asked them to clear a small area below hole 12 to provide a place for floodwater and debris to flow. They completed this work on Christmas Eve. Flooding returned on Christmas Day and the following day.

The extra work below hole 12 made a clear difference. Although the hole was still flooded, sediment buildup was only about two inches—far less than the 6–42 inches from previous floods. This lighter load can be cleaned with smaller equipment. Upstream improvements, such as deepening channels and steepening banks, also helped keep water moving in a narrower path. Cleanup was much faster, and the course reopened in three days.

What We've Learned

Deeper channels and higher banks move water off the property faster and carry sediment with it. Clearing the area below hole 12 also allowed water to travel farther before backing up, causing sediment to settle in the desert instead of on the course.

What We'd Like to Do

We plan to continue steepening the banks along the channel and address hole 12 with two steps: building natural berms to contain water and creating settling basins in the desert below the hole. These improvements would speed up cleanup, reduce damage, and help keep the course open more consistently.

Pickleball: Shoes matter more than you think

Submitted by Linda Mockford,
Communication
Director

One of the most overlooked causes of injury when playing pickleball is your shoes. The right shoes can prevent common pickleball injuries like ankle sprains, plantar fasciitis, and foot pain by providing stability and shock absorption. It concerns me when I see people come out to play pickleball in runners because I worry that they will “roll their ankle” and leave with an injury. An injury that might have been prevented if they had worn court shoes. Potential injuries can be avoided by wearing the proper shoes for the sport you are playing!

The reasons why you shouldn't wear running shoes to play pickleball all have to do with safety and performance. Running and pickleball are both sports that depend heavily on use of the feet, but the way the feet are used in each sport is very different. The bottoms of running and court shoes are very different.

A pair of running shoes have several ridges and patterns to give your feet comfort and support on all terrain with forward movement in mind. The soles of the running shoes could trip you up on the courts, causing you to fall. Pickleball shoes are designed for quick, short, side-to-side movements, and quick directional changes. Court/pickleball shoes have reinforced sides and stability features to support these motions. Court shoes have unique tread patterns that provide grip and traction for pivots without being too sticky, which reduces twisting injuries. When buying Pickleball shoes, also look for cushioning which absorbs shock, reducing strain on heels and arches. Cushioning reduces stress that can travel up your legs to your knees protecting your ankles and knees as well.

By only wearing your court shoes when playing you'll help extend the life of their grip, cushioning and support. Walking on asphalt, concrete, or other abrasive surfaces grinds down the tread, reduces grip and speeds up wear and tear. Wearing your shoes off the court can track dirt, gravel, or other debris onto the playing surface. You'll contribute to a cleaner court if you only put them on when you're at the courts. Start your game on the right foot!

Now for Club Pickleball news: A February 14 special Valentine's "Dinks and Drinks" tournament was organized by our tournament director Bev Bruce. 14 women competed against 14 men just for fun! The men were triumphant this time!

TPWGC teeing up Mack's college golf journey

February was pretty busy for the Tri Palm Women's Golf Club. Hosting the "Guys and Dolls" golf tournament as a fund raiser was a great success. There were over 100 Tri Palms golfers that participated. Lunch was served after golf and our Hospitality Chair, Josie Blandino did a super job of setting up and arranging the luncheon. During the luncheon we passed the golf bag for anyone that wanted to donate to Mack Smith for his college golf. We collected enough along with our club donation and another donation from the Par 3 Ladies to help with getting a new driver for Mack to start his college golf venue. Mack was presented with the money collected after lunch on February 10 by both clubs as seen in the photo above.

The Presidents Cup should be completed by February 24 and the winner announced soon after. Next major competition will be Club Championship and Crooked Putter with round one beginning February 24 and round two on March 3. Our Awards luncheon and meeting will be held March 3 right after golf.

Desert League was played at Oak Valley Golf Club in Beaumont for February. Not as many girls went this time but the two that did both placed in the money. Linda Baldwin was second low gross in a card off and Micki Goodman was third low gross. Terra Lago will be the course played in January.

As always, we want to invite any ladies in the park to come out and enjoy golf with us. If you are not sure about joining our club, you are welcome to come and play as a guest. Please contact Micki Goodman and she will get you signed up. Micki can be reached at 206-240-2250.

Oh, Canada wins Cup. Again.

Submitted by
Lorne Martindale

For the first time in our Ryder Cup history team Canada won back-to-back wins. Each year for about 15 years the title has alternated between Team Canada and Team USA.

Our Ryder Cup was played on February 5 and February 12 following the qualifying event, this year held January 22, to determine team members. USA and Canada team members were matched up for the competition consisting of 9 holes of alternate shot, 9 holes of scramble, 9 holes of best ball, all 2-man vs 2-man, and a final 9 holes of individual match play.

All players from both teams received the annual

Ryder Cup golf caps with US and Canada flags representing our friendship in competition, and following the final matches participants, including non-qualifiers were treated to a BBQ and beer. Always great camaraderie.

Although this is not a SSGC event, and is open to all golfers in Tri Palm, the two-person Horse Race was a great event for both spectators and participants. It is especially exciting for those who placed parimutuel bets to win, show, or place on the various teams. It's amazing to watch some of the favored teams get eliminated while others move on.

Prize money was paid to first, second and third-
